Act No. 161 (H.967). Human services; child care

An act relating to the provision of child care at family child care homes during remote learning days

This act proposes to expand the hours that a family child care home may care for school-age children from four hours a day to full time when the school-age children's schools have provided the option for or have scheduled a student for full- or part-time remote instruction occurring electronically off school premises. This provision shall apply retroactively to September 8, 2020 and shall remain in effect until September 1, 2021.

Multiple effective dates, beginning on October 5, 2020
